

GERONTOLOGY-Aging Services Professional Associate of Applied Science Degree - ONLINE

Dementia. End of life. Caregiving.

- Create opportunities to pursue or enhance your career
- Gain insight and practical approaches to best serve our aging population
- Use cutting-edge, interactive simulation equipment for a virtual aging experience
- Interact with local and national experts
- Explore real world content and regional resources

NEW! Fall 2020 Courses available through online, web conferencing and in-person options...

*>It's Your Choice**

WISCONSIN
INDIANHEAD
TECHNICAL COLLEGE

The region's leader in Gerontology education

GERONTOLOGY-Aging Services Professional

Flexible Learning Options

WITC's Gerontology-Aging Services Professional program trains and prepares the workforce to better serve the expanding aging population.

Flexible learning options include:

- Available fully online or at any WITC location - accessible anywhere at any time!
- Earn short-term credentials as you go with the embedded "Dementia Care" and "Gerontology for Healthcare Professionals" certificates!
- Unique and innovative learning options, integrating online and evening live sessions. Pick and choose which delivery works for you - it's Your Choice.
- Part-time and full-time tracks starting every 8 weeks for those who want to Start Now.
- High School students can Start College Now, earning both high school and technical college credit.

To learn more, contact
Program Director Jennifer Ellis

jennifer.ellis@witc.edu | 715.394.6677 ext. 6346

WITC is an Equal Opportunity/Access/Affirmative Action/Veterans/Disability Employer and Educator.

WISCONSIN
INDIANHEAD
TECHNICAL COLLEGE

505 Pine Ridge Drive
Shell Lake, WI 54871

