

Dementia Care Certificate

4 Classes | 12 College Credits

> Free tuition & books!

For those who currently work in health and human service sectors in Northwestern Wisconsin.

- ▶ Collaborate and network with others who are passionate about dementia-friendly communities
- ▶ Interact with local and national content experts
- ▶ Explore real world content and application in credit-based college courses

> Limited availability — Apply before December 7, 2020*

* Application must be received before 4 p.m.

COURSES AND SCHEDULE:

- ▶ Legal and Financial Issues of Aging
Jan 19–Mar 12, 2021 Your Choice*
- ▶ Alzheimer's and Dementia
Aug 24–Oct 15, 2021 Your Choice*
- ▶ Death and Dying
Mar 23–May 14, 2021 Your Choice*
- ▶ Communication of Aging
Oct 18–Dec 17, 2021 Online only

Your Choice delivery gives you flexibility in completing coursework. Attend class in person* at a WITC campus or outreach center, virtually through web conferencing, or online at another time.

* Due to COVID-19, access to WITC buildings is open to select staff and students. Updates can be found at witc.edu.

> It's your choice!

NORTHWEST

Wisconsin Area Health Education Center

WISCONSIN
INDIANHEAD
TECHNICAL COLLEGE

witc.edu/gero . 800.243.9482

To learn more, contact

Jennifer Ellis, WITC Gerontology Program Director
715.394.6677, Ext. 6346 | jennifer.ellis@witc.edu

WITC is an equal opportunity/access/affirmative action/veterans/disability employer and educator.