

Southeastern Wisconsin Region Presents: TOOLS TO NAVIGATE THE CHALLENGES OF AGING

Working Together to Raise Awareness About Elder Abuse and Improve Outcomes for Older Adults in Our Communities

Ageism, Myths and Stereotypes

*2022 Keynote Speaker:
Ashton Applewhite,
Anti-Ageism Activist and
Author of This Chair
Rocks: A Manifesto
Against Ageism*

Thursday June 9, 2022

Virtual Conference 8:00am-12:30pm

Join us for this free virtual conference featuring nationally renowned speakers.

CEU credits may be available for this workshop.

This conference is intended for professionals/caregivers working with older adults who are interested in gaining information about Elder Abuse Prevention.

For more information call:
(414) 289-6481

2022 Program Topics include

- * Ageism and Reframing Aging for Improved Outcomes
Julie Schoen, JD Deputy Director National Center on Elder Abuse
- * Panel of Promising Practices and Programs in Southeastern WI Region
SEWI County Representatives

Breakout Sessions and National Speakers

- * Spotlight on Elder Abuse and Community Response
Paul Greenwood, JD
- * Aging and Financial Vulnerability
Peter Lichtenberg, PhD, ABPP
- * Living Intentionally: Promoting Self Care and Preventing Compassion Fatigue
Elia Moreno
- * Screening and Management of Elder Abuse in Hospitals and ERs
Tony Rosen, MD, MPH

REGISTRATION

Spaces are limited register by June 3, 2022

Register online at: <https://bit.ly/3w1IGRn>

This event is brought to you by Kenosha County, Milwaukee County, Ozaukee County, Racine County, Walworth County, Washington County and Waukesha County.

MILWAUKEE COUNTY
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
& HUMAN SERVICES
AGING & DISABILITIES SERVICES

WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT of HEALTH SERVICES

