

Are you a CNA?

Take your caregiving journey further at Northwood Tech

A Gerontology – Aging Services Professional associate degree opens up opportunities for you to grow and thrive in the helping profession.

Receive credit for prior learning* for 2 elective credits toward the associate degree in Gerontology – Aging Services Professional.

- Gain knowledge in dementia, end-of-life, and case management
- Advance your career through hands-on training in aging and older adulthood

*Must provide a transcript from any nationally accredited educational institution or a record of completion from a Department of Health Services (DHS) course and successfully completed testing requirements.

NEW! Get recognized for your prior learning and experience to advance your aging services career through the nationally accredited Gerontology – Aging Services Professional program.

Learn More about Gerontology

Now enrolling for next semester. Contact us for more information.

Jennifer Ellis, MS, HS-BCP, CPG

Instructor (Superior, Ashland, Hayward and online)

jennifer.ellis@NorthwoodTech.edu
715.319.7302

Kimberly McDonald, MSW, LCSW, CPG

Instructor (New Richmond, Rice Lake, Ladysmith and Balsam Lake)

kimberly.mcdonald@NorthwoodTech.edu
715.246.1880

The Northwood Tech Gerontology-Aging Services Professional program is accredited by the Accreditation for Gerontology Education Council.

NorthwoodTech.edu